	16.07.2003 Shri B.D. Guru, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Advocate for respondents 1, 2, 3 and 5. Heard both the counsel. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that on a complaint made by respondent No.6, the Sub Divisional Officer, Dondi, Lohara, after conducting the enquiry removed the petitioner from the post of Sarpanch by an illegal order. However, the petitioner filed an appeal before the Additional Collector against the order of the Sub Divisional Officer. The learned Additional Collector has fixed the date for hearing of the appeal, however, the application for stay has been rejected and the appeal is likely to take time. Learned counsel further submits that if the stay is not granted then the petitioner is likely to suffer irreparable loss. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the opinion that if the learned Additional Collector is directed to expedite the hearing of the appeal itself and that appeal is disposed of then it will serve the purpose of the petitioner.

In the given circumstances, the learned Additional Collector is directed to dispose of the appeal filed by the petitioner, in accordance with law, as early as possible, but within three months from today.

Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed of.

Consequently, M.(W.)P.No.1344/2003 and I.A.No.6154/2003 also stand disposed of.

Parties are entitled for certified copy of this order.
